Sanger High has never lacked

PARTICIPATION

and this year was no exception. There were plenty of activities to get involved in and plenty of people got involved. The activities included student government, band, journalism, drama, NJROTC, and sports; just to mention a few.

On any afternoon (Monday-Friday) and even on a few evenings, you could find athletes practicing to become superstars, rally club painting signs and planning rallies, band perfecting the halftime shows, and students in journalism often wondering if, one night, they would spend the whole night working.

And for the people who weren't in these things, they participated by being there to give their support and show their enthusiasm for the many activities that went on all during the year.

ferry, I'm a cool guy who never bats my eye for as long as I've known for 4 years stay cool and hold your own. I don't give a damn about party to much and I'll see you next year. I'll see you.

Every morning students walked up the stairs of Sanger High trying to forget why they were there. But, somewhere down the hall they realized that the reason was to better themselves through EDUCATION.

Life at Sanger High was not all fun and games. Each class had to face the 'required' elements of the course. Every Senior dreaded American Institutions, but most made it through, one way or another. The Juniors experienced what's in store for them: the AP history classes were not your everyday A-B-C classes. The Sophomores thought that they had it rough, but just wait until next year. The Freshmen were enlightened by their discoveries in frosh social studies.

But, sitting at a desk reading a book wasn't all there was to learning. There was something for everyone. Sanger High has many forms of education: everything from PE to shop classes. Everyone had the opportunity to take a class that taught them what they were really interested in.

To Jerry a pretty cool dude that I had for my first period class. Good luck in the future.

Sanger High students were involved in many activities this year, but the thoughts that were actually occupying the minds of everyone were those associated with 'kicking back' and

RELAXING.

Very few found much time to really relax, but when they did, nothing held them back

In warm weather, the main site for taking it easy and talking things over was the front steps; and when the weather turned cold everyone went inside and the main hall became the most popular area of the school. You could also always find people relaxing in the quad

When the school day was over you could find the Sanger High students relaxing at parties, games, concerts, and, of course, ME-N-FE

Sanger High spirit was unbelievable this year

The SPIRIT

of the Seniors was 'flying high' (as depicted on their first-place Homecoming float) this year

Junior spirit was on the rise again

The Soph's gave the Seniors a lot of competition in class year

Frosh spirit is on an upward trend

Rally Commissioner Linda Kriner has to be given a lot of credit for her part in building spirit

Mugrdechian heads Council

The SHS Council faced an added burden this year when the faculty decided to withhold 'extra services' and refused to perform any and all adjunct duties. But life went on and with a Council composed of, in the words of ASB President Charlie Mugrdechian, "explosive students who did not hesitate to state their opinions" The 1978-79 Sanger High year proved to be an active and worthwhile one.

The Sanger High Student Senators are the group who are called upon weekly to perform some function to help make SHS a better place to be. Council Vice President Sarah Simonian was the 'boss' of the group and her leadership was instrumental in accomplishing a great deal throughout the year. In addition to the Council and Senate, Sanger High also boasted of their student court, re-introduced this year after an absence of several years, and the principal's advisory, a group composed of students who 'delighted' in advising Principal T.J. Gannon. Advised they did, but they also became the 'right arm' of the activities director Bob Buchanan who put them to work in organizing and implementing a 'spring' activities sports contest. Campus problems brought back the court, as the members of the student body 'had to get involved in this area if anything was to happen.' Credit has to be given to council advisor Bob Buchanan, who took over the position of activities director at mid-term. He is the leader who helped make real leaders of the SHS council, senate, court, and principal's advisory.

SHS Marching Band

A superior band in action!

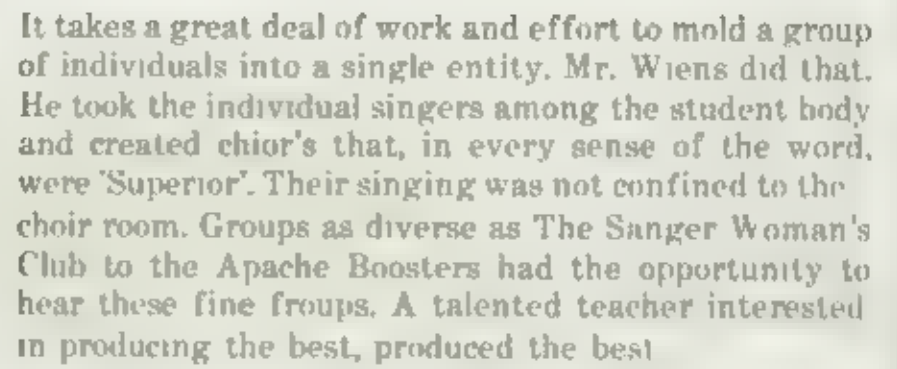

Enthusiasm, talent, hard work, and a desire to be the best produced the best. Mr. William F. Jaime and the SHS band never seemed to slow down and 'did their thing' from San Francisco to San Diego and they did it very well. The band was always called upon to perform and to add color and music to every event. They always said 'yes'. Mr. Jaime 'put it all together' this year and he 'put it together the right way'. The SHS band was second to none. SUPERIOR is the only word to describe the Sanger High instrumental musicians and Mr. William Jaime.

... more Superiors for SHS musicians

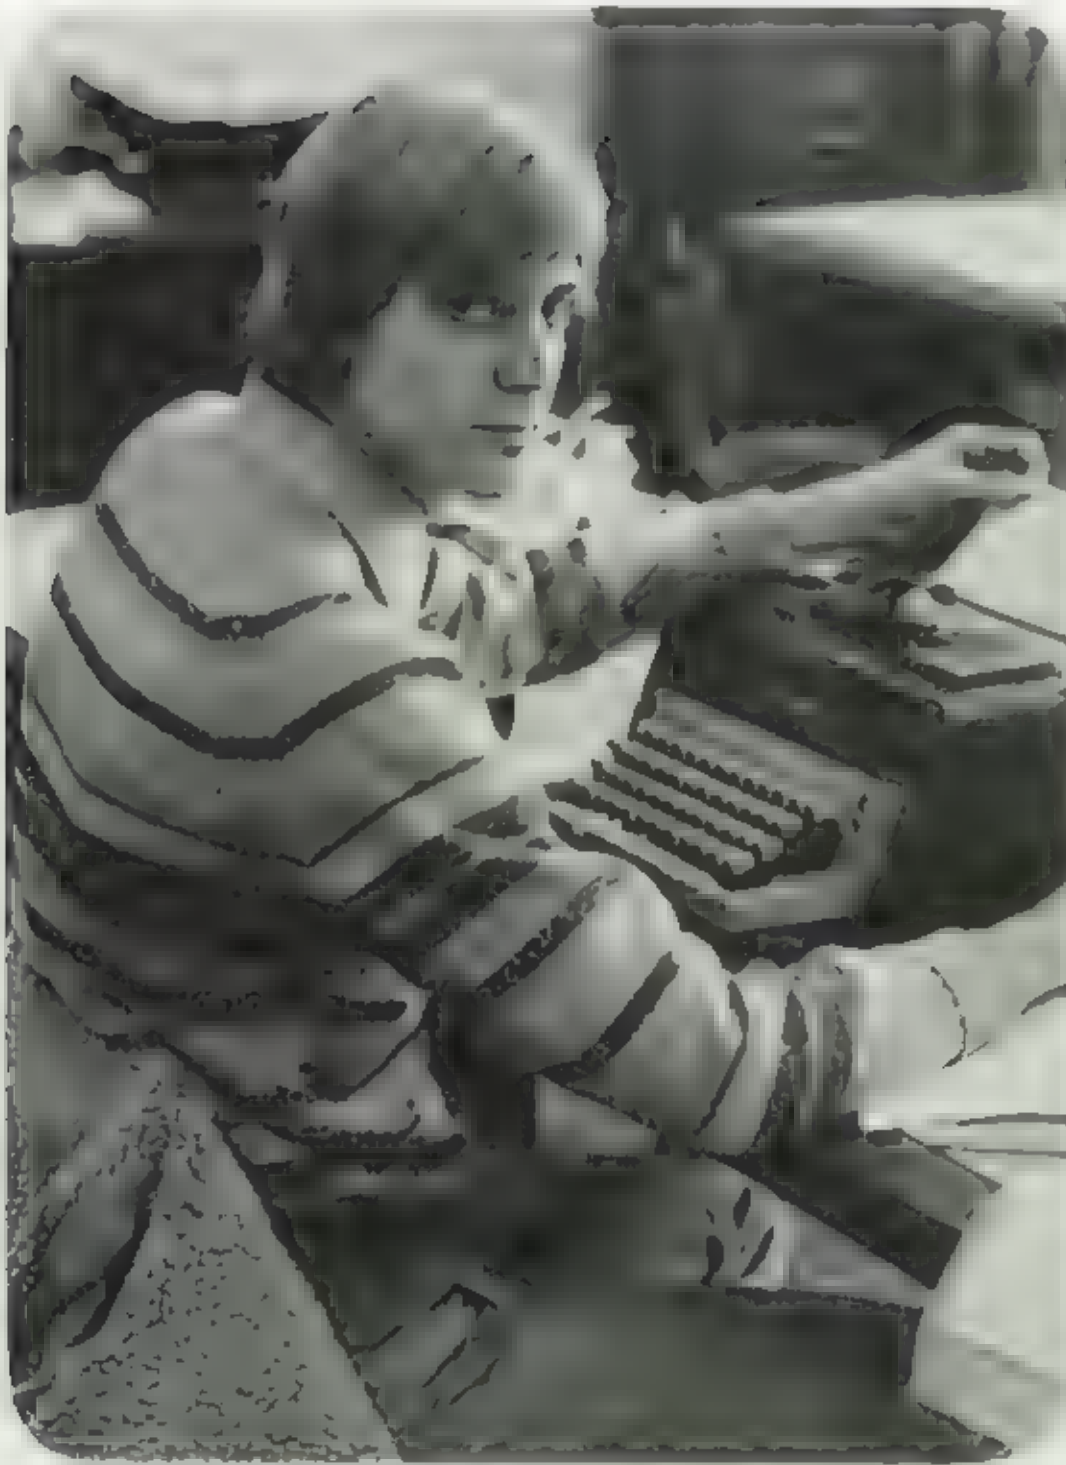

Once again the 'Superior' ratings were won by the Sanger High musicians. The annual 'Music Festival' was the scene of the Sanger 'Superior' performances held in Kingsburg. SHS music men, Bill Jaime and Norman Wiens, have groups that rate among the best in the San Joaquin Valley. Music is an integral part of any school curriculum and because of the excellence of the SHS instrumental and choral units, Sanger High curriculum is a "little above the rest."

Walton, Yost, Pittz, and Alonzò plan

Nancy Walton, Kellie Yost, Phillip Pittz, and Jesse Alonzò were a unique group. Unique and responsible. Unique because for the first time ever remembered deadlines were met. The yearbook staff under the direction and supervision of Nancy and Kellie came through deadline after deadline. Most responsible though were the editors and the time and effort they put into this book. Though infrequent, 11:00 pm arrived before the work was done on several occasions. Jesse Alonzò was the man with the camera and before long he became the most visible student on campus. He was everywhere with his camera. Phillip Pittz, a junior, edited the weekly edition of the Hi-Lights, and in that capacity supervised a small inexperienced staff. Much of the work fell on his shoulders and he came through week after week. Sophomore Matthew Gurule, emerged as one of the best writers on the staff and it wasn't long before he was named an associate editor of the Hi-Lights. As a whole, this was a good year in Journalism. There was a lot of work but there was a great deal of fun and satisfaction in getting the job done.

High year

AFS Program A fun year with Michele, Gerard and Ignacio

The AFS program on the Sanger High campus was one of the bright spots of the year. Michele Butler, Gerard Butler and Ignacio Becchi became the typical Sanger High students within a very short time of their arrival. They participated. They accepted us and we in turn accepted them without reservation. We'll miss them because we really did enjoy them with us, even if it were only for a short time.

"A year of Sanger High experiences"

MICHELE BUTLER

Michele arrived from New Castle, Austria and fit in from her first day. She worked in the concession stand, went to the sporting events, worked in drama and journalism, and studied. Her family: The Marcantonios

GERARD HUTHER

Gerard came to us from Switzerland. He was made to feel right at home. His home away from home was at the Hirnis. His favorites were the language classes and Ms Bacon and Sanger High Drama

IGNACIO BUCCOLI

From Italy came Ignacio whose Sanger family, the Fierro's made him welcome and gave him an insight into American family life. His favorites were Tanimoto and the business class, languages, football and above all people. His personality made him one of the best-liked Sanger High students

Braves-Frosh squads excel on SHS gridiron

Couch Roy Tanimoto's Braves had the makings of a championship team this year. The squad, led by Tad Bailew, Scott Denney, Derek Stephens, Ricky Ramires, Jim Kurschner and Bobby Gonzalez finished second in the WYL. Throughout the season the Braves became stronger as they went from game to game and by season's end were title contenders. By the end of the season the Braves were a peak performance and could have beaten anyone. The Apache Frosh football squad learned the fundamentals of football under Coach Joe Munoz and Jimmy Gonzalez and are ready for JV play next year. This year's Frosh 'stars' were Tim Ogawa, Paul Mesple, Mike Miller and Phillip Gonzalez.

Volleyball experiences many hardships

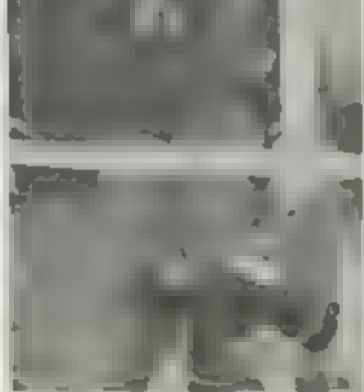

SHS volleyball has often been known for the lack of every one's mind, and this year was no exception. After starting the season with hopes of success, and then having a very tough season, it was a very tough season. The season was not as good as it had been. With the new coach, Sam Stearns, it was too late to change the team over. The girls gave it their all, but a lot of things did not go as planned.

Cross Country goes the distance

Coach Dave Dodson's varsity cross country squad took a second place finish in the WYFCA's season opener primarily to the fine running of Julian Vinton, Nacho Salinas, Steve Moreno, Marcos Perez, Roy Vinton, Louis Rodriguez and Ron Schaffer. In the girls' division, the Sanger High boys' coach coached Martinez, Juliana, Monica, Sandra Hicks and N. O. Orozco. This year's squad was much improved over last year and qualified fourth in the area and made it to the Valley finals. With only two graduating from the varsity squad, next year's cross country squad should be Valley contenders.

Mike Hamby and James Leong were the team leaders on this year's water polo squad. Both were outstanding throughout the year and led the squad both on offense and defense. In addition, outstanding play was turned in match after match by goalie Eric Bjornsen. Coach Art Ruble from Fresno State again took over the coaching duties from Coach Tiftick and did an effective job. Through his efforts, this year's Apache squad were much improved over the previous years.

Apache Super Stars

Each year there are many Apache athletes who deserve special recognition because of their accomplishments. It is always difficult to select "Super Stars" because there are always many others just as deserving.

This year, however, we of the ECHO staff singled out Apache Mark Shepherd, Apache Kevin Ashford, Apache James Leong, Apache Sharon Frauenheim and Apache Julian Vinton as our "Super Stars" of the 1978-79 fall sport.

No. 23 MARK SHEPHERD was a member of this year's Apache basketball squad and was even better this year. Unfortunately, he suffered an injury that kept him out of a few games. When he did play the game though, he was outstanding and played out as the recipient of our "Super Star" title.

No. 44 KEVIN ASHFORD also suffered an injury that kept him out of a few games. But when Mark was back, he was outstanding. He was a great defender and a great scorer. He played the position of a forward and was a great player. He was a "Super Star" of the fall sport.

No. 5 JAMES LEONG has been a member of the Apache water polo squad since his freshman year and was especially outstanding this year. He was a great defender and was one of the best defenders in the WYL. In addition, he was one of the best scorers on the squad. He was a great player and was a "Super Star" of the fall sport.

No. 1 JULIAN VINTON in his first year of cross-country running, quickly established himself as a premier runner in the school. He became Coach Dodson's No. 1 runner on the team. He was a great runner for the three-miles and was a great runner. Julian is also a runner on the track squad, and he has even school records in that sport.

No. 14 SHARON FRAUENHEIM is our "Super Star" of volleyball. Sharon has been playing volleyball on a Sanger High team since her freshman year and had her best year this year. She was a great player and was regarded as one of the best "pickers" in the WYL. In addition, she was a great player on the Sanger High leading tennis players.

Cook, Hockersmith lead 1978-79 Apaches

Mike Cook and Kevin Hockersmith were the 'big men' on the 1978-79 Apache basketball squad as they led the team through the season and as they consistently turned in outstanding performances on both offense and defense. But let's not forget Jeff Freeman, who 'almost single handedly' defeated the highly favored Mt. Whitney Pioneers as he completely dominated play in the fourth quarter of that contest. The Apaches had an on-off season. Winning where it was doubtful that they would and losing when they were expected to win. Cook was the leading scorer of the squad as he averaged more than 15 points per game, and ended the season No. 3 on the West Yosemite League scoring list.

Wiebe's Braves Provide exciting basketball

The Sanger High Braves under Washington Junior High's, Wayne Wiebe, had a winning season and prepared the Braves for Varsity action next year. Wiebe stressed the fundamentals and emerging as squad leaders were Gilbert Franco and Bob Gonzalez. The squads leading scorers. The defensive unit was lead by Franco and Louis Rodriguez. Throughout the season the Braves played exciting basketball as many of their contests were won in the last few seconds of play.

Apache Superstars

More Sanger High 'Superstars' Those are the 'Superstars' of the Sanger High winter sports.

No. 20 DEBBIE COTE. A four-year letterman on the girls team and the squad leader Debbie averaged about 10 points per game, was the team's playmaker, and an all-around basketball player. Debbie was an all-star as she was named to the West Yosemite League's all-star squad (as she did in her Soph and Junior year) and also named to the all-tourney teams in Reedley and San Joaquin Memorial tournaments.

Center-Fullback JAIMIE OVALLE. Jaime, only a Sophomore, was selected as our soccer 'superstar' because of his outstanding play, primarily on defense from his center-fullback position. In one of our newer sports, Jaime proved to be an excellent player and is regarded as one of the best players in the league. In addition to his defensive play, Jaime proved his value when help was needed on offense.

No. 30 MIKE COOK. Mike was the only player on Coach Lohspeich's starting unit but from the beginning of the season he showed that he was a quality player. Mike is an excellent outside shot, especially from the corner, was hard to stop. Mike averaged more than 15 points a game and was one of the scoring leaders in the West Yosemite League.

Heavyweight CALVIN WALKER. When you look at the total points scored in a season Calvin Walker just fably deserves his 'superstar' title the past two years. Calvin was the squads scoring leader and league Championship. A powerful wrestler Calvin went through league play without loss and in tournament competitions, he needed No. 1 was not unusual for our 1977 SHS superstar wrestler.

Montelongo leads '79 Apaches

Paul Montelongo was the No. 1 player on Coach Biscotti's Apache nine this year, but was closely followed by Kelly O'Brien, Rene Gonzalez and Mike Cook who turned in fine games contest after contest. The Apaches had to start over this year, as graduation last year left the squad inexperienced. The inexperience didn't show through though as the Apaches were tough in WYL play

Apache Thinclads Race to WYL Wins

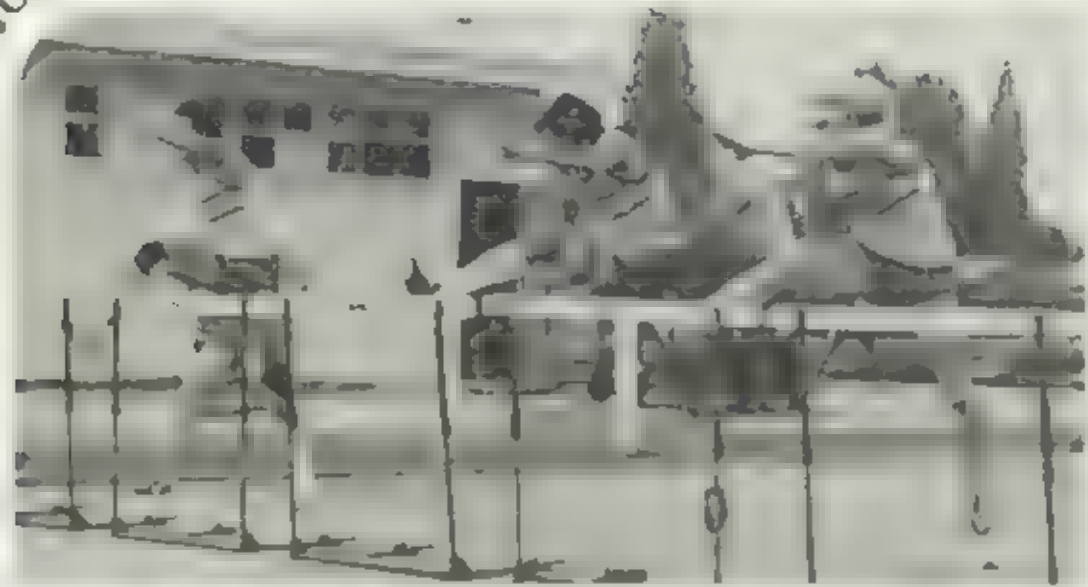

Super High Boy Track Field Row 1: Coach Dodson, Mark Kiser, Tom Merles, Joe Lefter, Gary Poyano, David Thomas, Charlie Murgdechian, Ron Schafer, (Louis Rodriguez) 1984, Mike Martinez, Greg Harris, Jay Denny, Brian Folmar, Steve Stewart, Erik Rieo, Pablo Perez, James Moxakian, Guy Martin, Steve Morales, Peter Simonian, Steve Mark, Mark Shepherd, Harold Harris, Greg Simmons, Mike McStrick, Mike Carr, Mike Miller, Eric Flemming, Allison Jordan, Dan Tufts, Allan Kiser, Gil Holguin, Marcos Perez, Juan Flores, and Richard Hemma

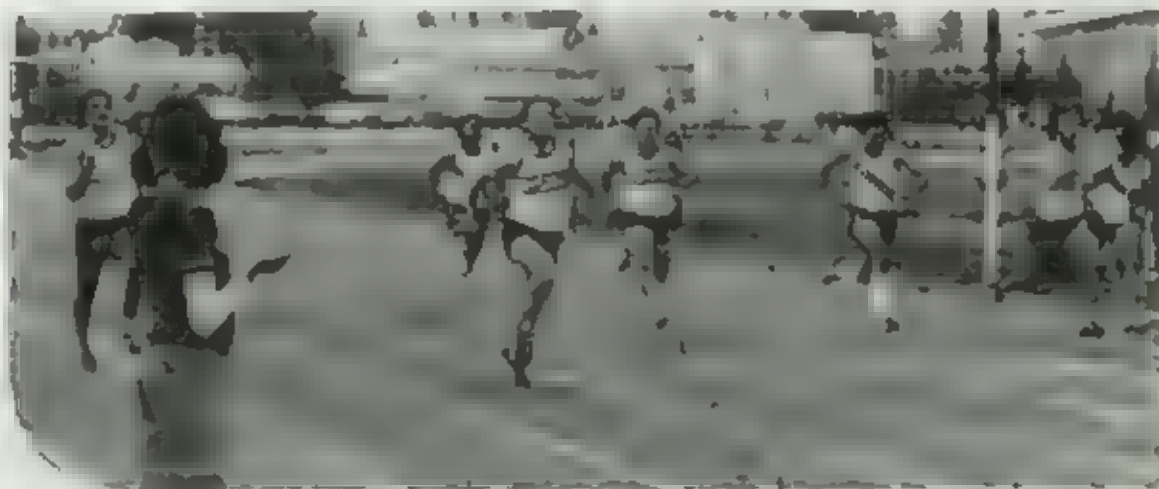

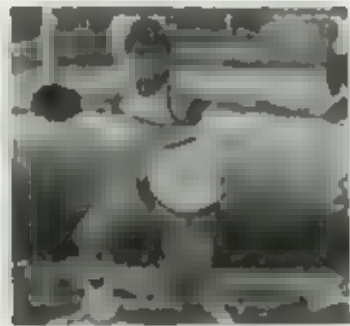

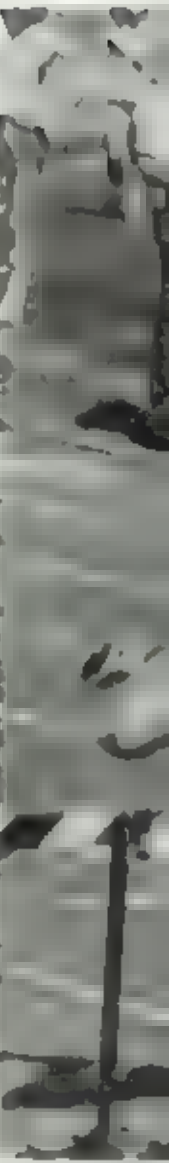

The Apache thinclads, as usual, were outstanding this year. Led by Kevin Ashford, Julian Vinton, and Nacho Salinas in the boys competition and Dena Lawley in the girls, Coach Dodson had one of the strongest squads in the Valley. The Apaches were especially strong in the distance running events and the girl's weight events and consistently won these during the season.

Apache Netters Smash to Victory

[illegible]

The Apache netters were led this season by four-year varsity letterman Nancy Lynn Walton in the girls' division and Sergio Mendoza in the boys' class. The Apache girls were strong this year and outpointed most of their competition. Chris Gorham, Sharon Frauenheim, Cathy Nakamoto, Brian Walton and Frank Onvarex were outstanding this season.

The Apache swimming squad swam their way to many wins in WYL competition this season as Beverly Hazel, Gary Cossette, James Leong, and Mike Hamby seemed to always win their events with some of the best times in the Valley. The Apache swimmers were the 'team' to beat this season in both pre-season and WYL meets.

Sanger High Girls Swimming. Front Row: Margo Gannon, Anna Sandberg, Pam Barr, Sara Cox, Lani Gorgorian, and Sarah Smith. Row 2: Norma Cantu, Janelle Argle, Tracy Brown, and coaches: Ed Farnsworth, Gary Holt, Larry Holt, and Coach Don Sparks. The Apache spring superstars. In track the super athletes were Dena Lawley and Kevin Ashford. Dena was tops in four events throughout the season the Kevin was one of the top shot putters in the Valley. The 'biggies' in swimming were Beverly Hazel, the school's record holder in the 500 freestyle race and one of the valley leaders, and Mike Hamby, a four year letterman, who excelled in four events. Craig Dadian was our selection as superstar golfer as he was consistent throughout the season and for you golf fans, is a six-handicapper. Paul Montelongo, a 400 plus hitter was the leader on the Apache baseball squad and led the Apaches throughout the season. In tennis it was Nancy Walton and Sergio Mendoza who were tabbed as superstars in that event. Nancy, a four year letterwoman, emerged as one of the best players in the Valley. Sergio was consistent throughout the season and had little trouble in disposing of his opponents match after match.

1978 Christmas Ball

"Our Dreams of Christmas" became their dreams of Christmas as Roger Hemman and Sheryl Kinzel were crowned as the 1978 Sanger High Christmas King and Queen. This activity highlighted the winter season and the dance was considered one of the best of the year. Tim Franz and Janice Chooljian, Erle Hogue and Beverly Hazel, and James Misakian and Angie Avila completed the royal Sanger High court. "Mixed Company" provided the music for this semi-affair sponsored by the Sanger High Student Council. Mark Beatie was again on hand to take the photos and helped to make this night, a night to remember by all who attended.

SHS Rally Girls

Some of the best cheer, pep, and letter girls are here on our campus. Year after year they participate in the various competition with the best of them with exception. Much time and effort is put into their training. The girls did what was necessary and did it better than the others to perfect the year's routine. The girls performed their best performance throughout the year they were kept very busy with their duties. The girls did not even sold tickets for the school. They did not have a chance. The major portion of the money was raised by the girls (and their parents). As the school letter material for and Bill Jaime worked through the year with the girls and their efforts and enthusiasm. They performed their best as they are.

JV, Frosh cheer squads add to SHS spirit

Spirit at Sanger High School this year was done by a new Sanger cheerleading group, the JV cheerleaders. This was the first year that the cheerleaders took their jobs seriously and did an outstanding job. This group took the place of the class cheerleaders and 'did their thing' at each of the JV games. The Frosh cheerleaders were as 'bubbly' as the JV cheerleaders and their personalities reflected their enthusiasm for the team. With the efforts put in by these two groups, the school spirit has increased greatly this year. The change—from class to JV cheerleaders—proved to be a beneficial change.

[illegible]

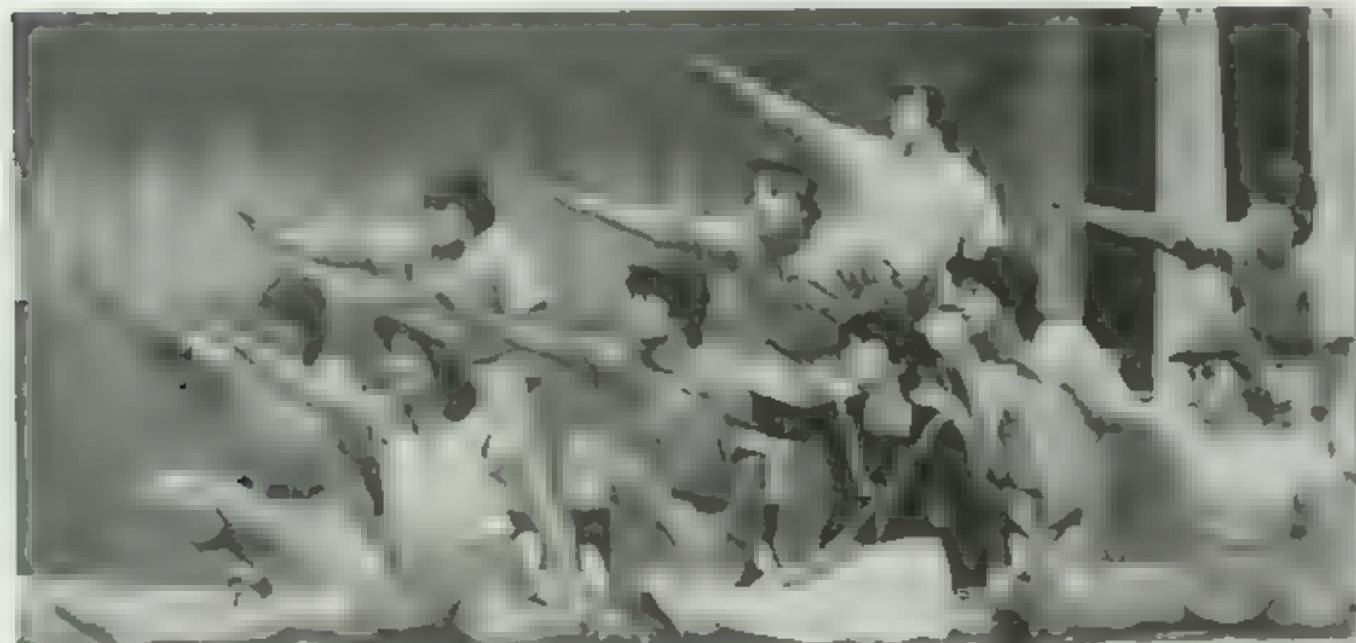

February 8, 1979, marked a new era in the outcome of the annual Junior-SENIOR Powderpuff game. The game didn't end in a tie. The SENIOR spark came in the 2nd quarter when SENIOR Dena Lawley scooted 70 yards for a touchdown. Quarterback Cathy Padilla added the extra point. The 3rd quarter was marked by good defense. Neither team could move the ball. But the SENIOR offense came alive when Diane Ogawa faked a reverse and went in for the 2nd score of the game. Paul Montelongo was crowned Powderpuff King during the halftime festivities.

1979 Miss Spring Dream

Miss Spring Dream
Vicki Campbell

Sanger High's Miss Spring Dream is one of SHS's most active and most talented students. Senior Vicki Campbell was selected Sanger High Spring Queen and in addition was one of the most active campus music students and was the lead in the spring production of "Damn Yankees". Runners-up in the queen contest were Sue Stuart, Sarah Simonian, Kellie Yost, and Lysha Young. Spring Week was the hi-light of the Sanger High spring season and the student council was instrumental in planning a week that created much enthusiasm among the members of the student body. During the week the students were afforded the opportunity to do everything from wearing togas and chariot racing to participating in the Dating Game, dancing in the dance contest and 'doing it' at the mini-olympics. All-in-all, Spring Week focused on fun and involvement and it was fun as many Sanger High students did get involved.

Charlie and Kathy claim L'il Abner, Daisy Mae titles

Two of Sanger High's most popular students were selected for this year's Lil Abner and Daisy Mae contest and Kathy were the honored guests at the Backwards Dance, where the girl students led the way as they had to, for once, do the asking. It was a success as the many participants danced to the music of 'Touch' and enjoyed the marrying anties of 'Marrying Glen'

1978-79 was a plus year for Ms. Linda Bacon and Sanger High Drama. In addition to the annual spring musical, "The Miracle Worker" was presented in December to a large appreciative audience. Since Ms. Bacon took over, interest and enthusiasm for plays and productions has increased greatly. When the notices for casting for the plays goes out, a very large turnout responds. As a result, Ms. Bacon has made the shows school-wide rather than class-wide.

Girls dunk boys in Tug of War contest

FFA Week again captured the attention of the student body as the students got involved primarily in the tug-o-war. The tug was made and the girls won! This year the boys hit the water. In addition to this popular activity, the FFA members helped to make this week a week to remember during the winter season as they sponsored a peccating contest and organized an interstate race.

Board, Administration reflect "care" attitude

Dr. J. Donald Dorrough

With the District's "New Horizons" Institute presented in January, the Central office administration created a bond between that level of the school district and Sanger High. Their interest in our campus and our well-being was reflected throughout the year through numerous activities of Sanger High that they personally became involved in. Their offices are a few blocks away, but their enthusiasm for SHS was evident each day.

Sanger High . . . A very busy

On these pages we selected photos that represent just some of the activities that HAPPENED IN THE FALL. At each home game Sanger High's NJROTC unit was responsible for "Raising the Colors." "Buy a ticket!" "Please buy a ticket!" These phrases were heard thousands of times during the early part of the school year as the Dr. Marvin Call committee raised funds for the new stadium ticket booth by raffling the Subaru Brat. Lysha and Tom did their thing and at our night rally we officially welcomed Ben (Sandoval) to Sanger High. Finally, it costs a lot of money to go to a football game, because the fans were confronted by clowns of all sorts and persuaded to buy items of all sorts, including balloons.

place IN THE FALL

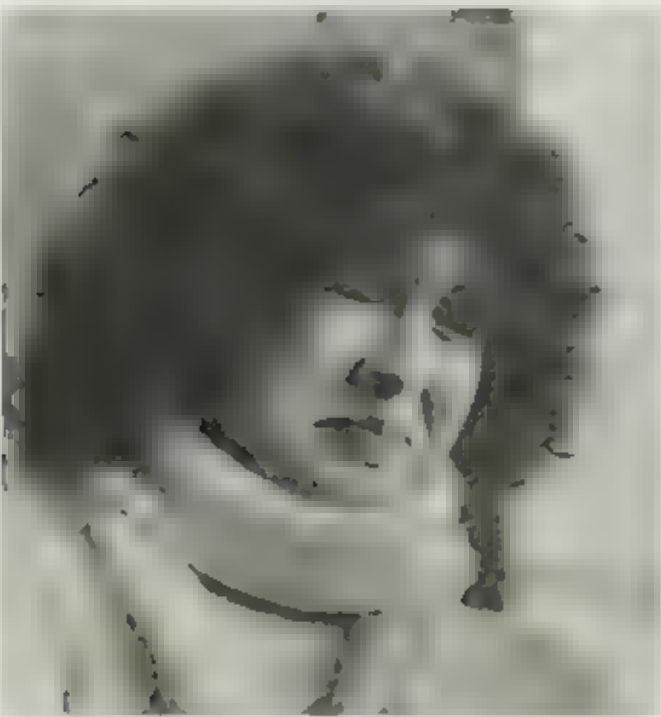

THE FALL

Sanger High Much

The weather changed, it got colder. The sun stayed above the clouds and the rain came. But the activity at Sanger High didn't stop at all and the interested Sanger High students had plenty to do. Mr. Wiens and his California History students were always on the go and spent several of their weekends in the woods or in other areas of historical interest in California. His classroom was the entire State of California. The boys in Home Ec. showed the girls 'how to do it' as they won the cake decorating contest, proving—as they said—that we can outdo the girls in any activity. Stefanie Kisner likes to eat lunch but when Mr. Whittington serves the steamed hudders. She was caught here 'eating' or trying to eat, a bug! Mr. Whittington said there was a purpose! Mr. Peeia wanted to show his students the problems that face a young couple when marriage is contemplated. A 'wedding' fashion show was held, complete with everything from flowers to photographs. The faculty ate well one morning compliments of the Student Council. A pre-Christmas breakfast was held for the appreciative faculty. To balance Homecoming, a Macho-man contest was held and attracted a large number of contestants. Dr. Dorrough greeted the teachers at Institution Day in January, Janice Chooljian was one of the Gottschalk's Hi-Deb models who modeled in February, and the SHS Drama and Future Medical Students assisted in the mock-disaster drill held in the community. All in all, a very busy winter.

activity in the Winter

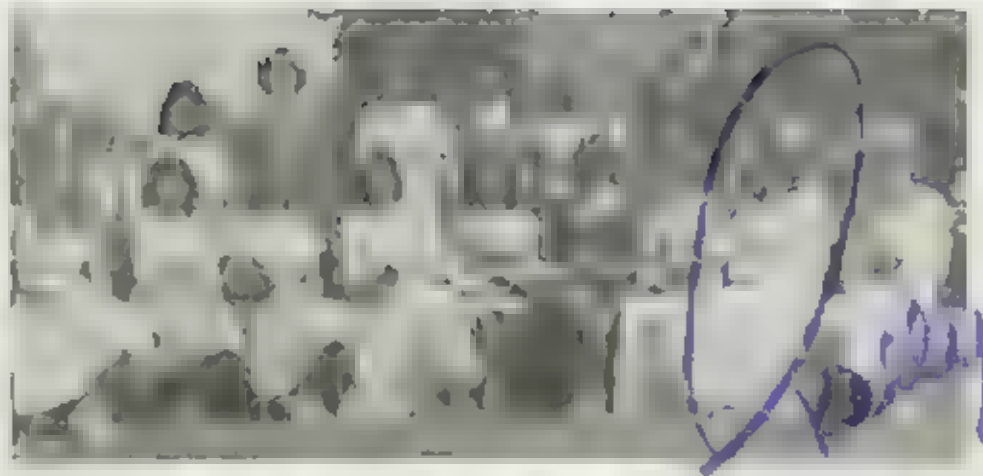

Sanger High . . . enough 'Spring'

Many things 'Happened in the Spring' this year and it took the concerted effort of many members of the Sanger High Student Council to keep track of everything. In addition to 'Spring Week', which featured the crowning of Senior Vicki Campbell as our 'Miss Spring Dream', the Spring calendar also included a 'Friend's Week', that featured the 'Have Pride in Your Ride' contest. Many Sanger High students entered the contest won by Danny Navarette. Hundreds of Sanger High students headed for the parking lot to view the judging. SHS Proxy Charlie Murgdehian talked to a real politician during the Sanger sponsored 'Leadership Day' which brought back Assemblyman Rick Lehman to the campus. Lehman is a graduate of SHS and while in high school was actively involved in student government, drama and journalism. One of the most active clubs on campus, FHA, spent much of their spring entering the Homemaker contests and bringing recognition to the school through their winning entries. Finally, it was 'parent time' for many seniors in the 'Family Living' class as Mrs. Crider taught her girls the responsibility of raising a family.

To a Friend . . .

To a Friend—
The sun's setting behind the hill,
The song is over but I remember still,
The happiness it brought me then—
Now you're gone and time won't bend.
You were here for a short while,
But we who knew you will not forget your smile.
The universe is vast, our lives are so small.
Things go on with or without us,
we're not so tall.
With each passing of a year, the colors may fade,
The winters may get warmer,
And in the water I'll wade.
Time will never erase your memory,
my friend,
You spent your life wisely and tried till the end,
To keep up the smile everyone knew
and loved,
Daylight is so precious, and yet we waste,
And take for granted many people
until too late.
We turn around and they're forever gone,
It's ironic how life can be like the end of a song.
